Income of Junior Fellows
for Year 1888.

The tutorial income of the Junior Fellows does not pass through the hands of the Bursar, but from returns, which have been made to him in his official capacity, of the average income of the Tutors in the three grades, derived from the fees of their pupils, he believes that the average income of a Tutor in the Senior Grade is £111 10 s. 4 d.; of a Tutor in the Middle Grade, £59 17 s. 11 d., and of a Tutor in the Junior Grade, £34 10 s. 3 d., in addition to the sums paid to them by the Bursar on the part of the college, as detailed hereafter.

The names of the Tutors in Senior Grade are marked thus (*); in the Middle Grade thus (†); in the Junior Grade thus (‡).

Sums paid by the Bursar out of the College Estates:—
